

THE CITIZEN.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 2, 1875.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. E. M. PRINCE returned from Prescott this week.

DAVID & NELSON have just made a new copper tank for boiling beer in Levin's brewery. It is a fine piece of work.

ATTENTION! Smokers. The best brands of cigars, chewing and smoking tobaccos, meerschaum and briar pipes at J. S. MANSFIELD'S Pioneer News Depot.

We cordially welcome back to Tucson, Samuel Hughes, of whom we made mention a couple of weeks ago as intending to open an assay office here. He will at once proceed to put it in operation.

P. LAZARUS made another shipment of hides and pelts last Saturday to Yuma for San Francisco. This time there were 200 hides and a lot of sheep pelts, and were sent by L. Goldberg's train.

Dr. F. O. BARTSTOW, surgeon dentist, is located on Myers street near Congress in Tucson. He bears the reputation of a good workman in the very delicate art of filling teeth and inserting new ones.

THERE was a very pleasurable party last Monday evening at Camp Lowell. Quite a number of the citizens of Tucson attended and they speak in the highest terms of the entertainment. It was given by the officers at the post-trader's fine rooms.

R. N. LEATHERWOOD'S business is so increasing that he has been obliged to enlarge his corral and stable room, and is now engaged in putting up substantial stabling 250 feet in length along the north side of his corral. The posts and stringers are eight inches square of sound pine timber.

Visits to the Mission of San Xavier, are popular here. It is almost regarded the duty of our citizens to see that no visitors are allowed to go away without feasting their peepers on that old piece of sacred architecture. Therefore on Wednesday, Mr. E. N. Fish conveyed to and from it, Hon. Levi Bashford and wife, Honorable J. P. Hargrave, L. A. Stevens and J. C. Campbell, and Miss M. D. Nesmith and Miss J. E. Packer.

J. P. FULLER and family arrived from Hermosillo, Mexico, last Saturday night. This will be their future home.

Mr. Fuller brought with him a lot of choice oranges, limes and so forth, as well as dried fruit and choice cigars. He also brought a quantity of the celebrated P. D. butter, manufactured near Hermosillo, and will continue to receive it by stage every Saturday. This butter is put up by competent and careful persons for family use, and Mr. Fuller invites the people to call at the City Market, north side Church plaza, and examine it for their own satisfaction.

JAMES H. TOOLE cannot be induced to be a candidate for the office of Mayor at the ensuing election. This announcement is made by authority, and will relieve all who may be exerting themselves for or against him for that position. He has held the office two years. When first elected, the village was several thousand dollars in debt; now it is out of debt with money in the treasury. He never wanted the office, and the aforesaid objects being accomplished, he absolutely refuses to have it again.

THE races yesterday, were attended by a larger number of people than any previous ones in Tucson. Over a thousand people were present. The fun came off at 2 p. m. as announced, Gardner's Gray Eagle winning the mile run, in 1:54, and Smith Turner's Gila Gray came out but little behind and was second best. "Gim Lee" came out third, "Gray Dick" fourth, and "Red Fox" fifth. More race talk is indulged and there seems to be money to bet on the "Gila Gray" for another race.

SAMUEL H. DRACHMAN is nearly always looking out for something good for himself and friends, and in his last trip to San Francisco, from which he returned on Wednesday, he was quite vigilant and reports a success which will last him for life—at least all his friends hope so. He showed us the picture and remarked that he would have to return ere long and bring the original out to Tucson. Then another thing, he didn't forget that we have some mouths for juicy, red apples, and brought along a box of them, and turned them over to us—for which he has the hearty thanks of several who keenly love good apples. We hope the donor may always be prosperous and happy, and live and long enjoy that capture he made for his own "use and benefit" as the lawyers say. We may say, also, that he has purchased and has on the way a fine lot of new goods adapted to this market, and has a stock on hands which he is selling out at living rates.

THE board of supervisors convened last Monday and on that and the following two days, closed up the business for which it met. The principal business was the allowance of accounts and settlement with the tax-collector and treasurer. The exact sum of the bills allowed we will get and print next week, and would have had it now but yesterday the recorder's office, like nearly all other places of business, was closed most of the day, and the aggregate amount had not been previously ascertained by the clerk, but will reach fully $10,000.

In the matter of the bills of those who went to Cababi district to investigate the circumstances of the death of Michael Layden and George Hughes, each was allowed for $25, and also one for horse hire for $30, were allowed. But one bid was presented for flooring the court-house, and it was by John Wyldie for $500, he finding all the materials. The bid was accepted and bond of $500 given for the faithful performance of the work. The public can rest assured that John Wyldie will do a good job regardless of the bond. It is a way of his.

In the matter of the petition of regular jurors for pay on days when they were properly excused from attendance on court, the same was denied.

Mariano Samantago presented his resignation as justice of the peace, which was deferred until the meeting of the new board.

Social Party.

Early in the week, this invitation was given out:

Mr. — and ladies, your company is respectfully solicited to a ball and banquet to be given on New Year's eve at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, dedicated to the Hon. Hiram S. Stevens.

COMMITTEE OF INVITATION.

Estevan Ochoco, E. D. Wood, B. M. Jacobs, Juan Elias, John Bartlett, D. A. Bennett, S. H. Drachman, Dr. J. C. Hardy, R. N. Leatherwood, Chas. Shibley, F. Massoletti, J. Goldtree, C. H. Meyers, S. Hughes, D. Velasco, Wm. S. Oury, C. Poppe, P. Lazarus.

COMMITTEE OF RECEPTION.

L. C. Hughes, C. W. Culver, P. Ruelas, P. Wilkins, I. S. Fried, Theo. Welisch, I. Goldberg, A. Levin, H. B. Smith, A. Steinfeld, J. Pacheco, Jos. Neugass.

FLOOR MANAGERS.

R. M. Crandal, E. N. Fish and L. Wolf.

At an early hour, the spacious dining-hall of the hotel was crowded with guests, many of whom were from other counties of the Territory. With all the opportunity afforded by the main room, there could but a small portion of those present dance, and therefore another band of music was procured, and by ten o'clock another large room in the Cosmopolitan hotel was put in splendid order and filled with dancers. It is safe to say that at no other party in Tucson, was there such a large attendance. Up to the hour of our departure, all seemed in the best of humor and were making it lively for the very last end of 1874. The splendid Fifth Cavalry band supplied the music for the main hall, and was specially employed for the occasion, and the other was a local band. The supper was given by Joseph Neugass of the Tucson Restaurant and he never fails to "dish up" plenty, and party-goers speak with delight of the quality and variety of his suppers. At about 11:30 supper was served, and this with accompanying proceedings continued up to 2:30 a. m. of January 1, 1875. After the appetite for food was satiated, that for compliments and incidental oratory asserted itself, and the first course was brought on by Mr. William Zeckendorf, who proposed "Our Distinguished Guest" Hon. Hiram S. Stevens, Delegate elect to the next Congress. Mr. Stevens properly responded and then proposed "The Judiciary." This received a fit response by Chief Justice Dunne, who followed by offering "The Governor of Arizona." To this Governor Safford appropriately replied and then proposed "The Military Authorities of Arizona." Col. W. B. Royall, Fifth Cavalry, commanding Camp Lowell, responded in suitable style, after which he proposed a toast "To the Ladies." Lieut. Forbush, Fifth Cavalry, very happily "came to time" on this toast and replied on behalf of the ladies in a manner creditable to himself and satisfactory to the ladies, and then proposed "The Old Year," which was responded to by L. C. Hughes, who followed up by proposing "The New Year." Mr. William Zeckendorf was then called up, and he proposed "The Government of the United States." Chief Justice Dunne then proposed "The Press and its Worthy Representative in Tucson." Not being present at this part of the proceedings, we did not respond then, but have given a weekly response for some years in Tucson, and expect to continue to respond for more years to come. If any other toasts were offered, we have no report of them. The guests mostly returned to the dancing halls and continued the enjoyment until 4 a. m. The managers may well congratulate themselves on the success of the occasion, and considering the great number in attendance, they succeeded in securing to the guests a very satisfactory entertainment.

District Court.

District court last Saturday transacted the following business and adjourned sine die: Charles Vince Moore was sentenced to five years in the Territorial prison for the crime of manslaughter, and William Hall for the term of his natural life for murder in the second degree; both to be confined in the jail of Pima county until a Territorial prison be established. The case of R. M. Robertson, administrator, vs. Dolores Abbott, was withdrawn at plaintiff's cost. It was held by the court that the jurors belonging to the regular panel, were equitably entitled to pay for all days when properly excused from service. The entire calendar was disposed of so far as clients and counsel desired.

District Court.

The court was in session forty-seven days. During this time there were four murder trials, one of which was retried because the first jury failed to agree to a verdict. These cases had been subjects of comment for several months by almost every man legally qualified to act as a juror in any case. In one case about 200 jurors were summoned before an acceptable jury was secured, and over 100 on others. It would not do to accept a juror to whom it was possible to sustain legal objection, for in such event, new trials would have been ordered on a review by the supreme court, and the county subjected to the same trouble and expense again, with a fair chance of the criminals getting off unpunished, by reason of the lapse of time to get witnesses beyond reach of process. It is somewhat remarkable that verdicts were obtained in all the murder cases. Whatever difference of opinion may exist as to the sufficiency of the verdicts, they say to man and woman slayers that there is reasonable certainty of some legal punishment.

So far as we can learn, Chief Justice Dunne has left a most favorable impression upon the bar and community for ability and impartiality; for a determined purpose to impart the law as it stands, without prejudice for or against any one—counsel or client. From diverse sources, the compliments to Judge Dunne in these respects are abundant, and we are sure well deserved. We venture the prediction that no case appealed from his court will be reversed by the Supreme court upon any of his rulings. This ought to be a source of great satisfaction to all concerned, save perhaps attorneys whose fees may be curtailed somewhat thereby.

CIRCULATING LIBRARY. The latest and best novels can always be found at J. S. MANSFIELD'S Pioneer News Depot.

SEE advertisement for new schedule time of the arrival and departure of the stages and mails from Tucson.

We are informed that Rev. G. A. Reeder will hold church service to-morrow at 11 a. m. in the court-house.

The Last Change in Departure of the Mails Westward.

It is useless to attempt to disguise or conceal the dissatisfaction expressed by very many of our people on Tuesday morning, when on going to the post-office at the usual time with their mail and packages, they were informed that the stage and mail were gone, with the additional aggravation that none would leave again until Friday; and it is equally futile to attempt any excuse for the suddenness of the change without the least public notice. Important mail and package matter had of course to lie over here three days. So far as packages are concerned, there is no obligation on the proprietors, other than their published inducements, to regard anybody's convenience; but in the carriage of the mails, the public is more individually interested than in any other branch of the public service. Almost irreparable damage to several of the warmest friends of the mail contractors and no doubt to many others, was the result of the late change. This whole community have promptly assisted the contractors in all they have asked, and while they are not expected to deter to the mere whims of the community, they should pay due regard to its rights and reasonable wants. From the outset, we have publicly and privately expressed some excuse for the number of changes heretofore made, and any and all minor inconveniences occasioned thereby; but the change of this week was so gross and inexcusable a damage to the public, that we as a journalist, must give expression to it, and hope that no similar provocation will recur. It is decidedly unpleasant to find fault at any time, but men would not be worthy the name of men, if they submitted in silence to such an outrage on their rights as that of Tuesday morning. We immediately sent a sharp telegram to Messrs. Kerens & Mitchell at San Diego, and have written our good friend Mr. James A. Moore, superintendent of this division, in unmistakable language regarding the matter. Our patrons here expected us to take action in it, and we did it promptly and without kid or other gloves.

In addition to leaving most of the mail of three days' accumulation in Tucson, the stage left a couple of hours before the arrival of the overland mail from the east, and so it had to lie here three days.

As heretofore, we shall continue to aid the contractors in every just and honorable way, and make due allowances for bad roads, accidents and many such well known but unforeseen causes of detention; but there are circumstances which the public will not excuse and we have no disposition to excuse.

At no time in the history of Pima county, has mining operations been so numerous and full of encouragement. We have an article prepared showing in detail many facts, but it goes over for the present.

In Yavapai, the condition is much the same. Within a few days Mr. C. P. Crawford has applied for survey for patents to six copper mines, Eugene E. Burlingame for two, and C. M. Shannon and B. M. Hughes for one, in Yavapai county at Clifton, and very soon we are told applications for survey of about ten more will be made. R. M. Metcalf, Esq., of Silver City, visited Tucson this week on business connected with these surveys. He started back by buckboard today.

THE town is well supplied with people from abroad. The members of the legislature published elsewhere are all in or are due to-day; also several gentlemen from different parts are here for positions. Mr. E. S. Penwell and "Doc" Tompkins from Prescott; the former for Secretary of the council and latter for Sergeant-at-Arms in one of the houses. Judge John A. Rush is in town for the supreme court, and Mr. Bean was here a few days and left a card which we print.

THE races constituted the feature of yesterday in Tucson. The stores and offices were about all closed by 12 o'clock, and the streets were deserted for a few hours. The day was a most beautiful one. The atmosphere was very clear and the sun shone with splendor and mildness. The morning was frosty as was all this week. Tuesday evening, we had quite a rain, but snow fell in the higher mountains.

LAST night about 8 o'clock, Charles V. Moore, William Hall, Joseph T. Holmes and Refugio Rivera broke out of jail, and when our paper was put to press this morning, they were not heard from. The recent expensive term of court—well it's no use to say anything more about it.

NEXT Thursday evening the Fifth Cavalry band give one of their excellent concerts in the court-house. The people here owe them a liberal benefit for recent exhibition of good will. Then their entertainments are well worth patronage.

We have told several persons interested that we wanted to see Mr. Rickman about the particulars of his visit to the Chiricahua reserve to get his stolen horses, and we have not yet seen him nor has he called at the office. Will he please do so?

EPISCOPAL CHURCH service will be held to-morrow evening at 7 p. m. by Rev. O. F. Bartow, in the court-house. We heard the reverend gentleman last Sunday and were very well pleased with his discourse.

COL. WINGARD, paymaster, arrived at Lowell a week ago and has since paid the troops, and C. Co. of Fifth Cavalry for four months.
